Note. There is a toddy shop as well as a grove in the village in question The Sanad alienating the village in 1819 conceded all items of revenue except sundry to the inamdars Settlement held in 1880 recognises the inamdars right to the toddy revenue In this case the inam Settlement has not included "toddy" in "Chillar Baje Bab" & has also drawn a distinction between "toddy" and "Arkani" the latter expression meaning to represent only "arrack"

Unlike some other Cases –

The Land Court has not recorded all the facts necessary to find out what rules apply to the Case

The Excise Commissioners thesis simply to be followed –

– The account due to the Executors for the last year & that advanced, to them have not been mentioned –

– A draft admitting the Claim to the Excise revenue according to the Excise Commissioners is ruled for approval

Sir,

In submitting herewith the records of enquiry relating to the Toddy revenue of Koodlapura Inam village, Nanjangud taluk, I have the honor to state that I concur in the investigating officer's opinion that the Inamdar is entitled to Excise Revenue from Toddy. There is both a toddy shop and a date grove in the village. Accordingly Excise revenue is payable to him subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 in Government Proceedings No. 2074-83/R.F-166-92, dated 2d August 1901.

I have the honor to be,
